Investigators Call Officers

Hear B-Girls Made To Fleece 'Suckers'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate probes called for testimony today from police and the underworld concerning allegations that girl entertainers are forced for fear of their lives to fleece patrons of a crime syndicate's night clubs.

First, however, the Senate Investigations subcommittee was to hear the rest of the story of Joan Gainsley, a blonde actress and dancer. She testified Wednesday that she and other performers were required to mix with customers and hustle drinks at night clubs employing her as a dancer.

The subcommittee is exploring the affairs of the American Guild of Variety Artists, an AFL-CIO affiliated union of entertainers.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced he was calling police officers from Chicago and neighboring Calumet City, Ill., and at least a couple of Chicago underworld figures, Jimmy (The Monk) Allegretti and Joey Aiuppa, in a planned long day of hearings.

William Scott, former special assistant U.S. attorney for the Northern Illinois District, testified Wednesday that exotic dancers and other girl entertainers were used also as "B-girls" by a Chicago-ruled crime syndicate to "attract suckers" to syndicate-owned night clubs in the Calumet City area.

Scott pictured the girls as living in such "mortal fear of their lives" they resist testifying in court about their experiences.

"These entertainers," Scott said, "were forced to participate in such illegal activities as prostitution, B-drinking and pickpocketing."

Scott ticked off the names of racketeers Tony Accardo, Leslie (Killer Kane) Kruse and Frank Laporte as involved in the club deal.

Scott said he had uncovered the club story in a 1959 investigation of Calumet City crime. In some cases, he said, the girls were beaten by bartenders.

Scott said the inquiry "definitely established that practically all of the so-called singers and exotics

Fathers' Day Founder Tells How It Began

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A two-horse carriage bumped along a dirt street in Spokane 52 years ago this Sunday.

Two women were riding in the carriage and on its floor was a bundle—containing gifts for "shut-in" fathers on the nation's first Fathers Day.

"Fathers Day has seen progress move from horse and buggy times to space crafts orbiting around our earth," says Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, founder of Fathers Day. "I experience indescribable pride when I think of the courage of our young astronaut fathers who are daring the elements in quest of peace. May our Supreme Father companion them always."

Mrs. Dodd, daughter of a Civil War veteran, was one of the women in the carriage more than half a century ago. A friend, Eva Cummings Estes, was the other.

Financier Questioned Two Hours

Estes Testimony Opens New Avenues In Marshall Probe

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—Testimony from Billie Sol Estes opened new avenues for investigation in the mystery death of an Agriculture Department official, Dist. Atty. Bryan Russ said Wednesday night.

Russ said he will subpoena three or four additional witnesses before the Robertson County grand jury hold its next session Monday.

The grand jury is investigating the fatal shooting June 3, 1961, of Henry H. Marshall, 52, who was state chief of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. They questioned Estes, erstwhile farm financier, for nearly two hours Wednesday. None of his testimony was made public.

"From his testimony some new avenues have opened up that we have to go into," said Russ.

He declined to name the prospective witnesses.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said jurors peppered Estes with questions at a rate of more than one a minute.

Wilson said Estes refused to answer about 100 questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

Because of the answers "and lack of them" from Estes, the attorney general said he would intensify his investigation of Estes' business affairs. Estes has been indicted on charge of fraud and theft linked to his multi-million-dollar sales of liquid fertilizer. Estes' cotton, grain storage and fertilizer empire is in receivership.

Through lawyer John D. Cofer of Austin, Estes first sought a court order stating he did not have to testify before the grand jury because its members might be biased and had him under suspicion in the Marshall death.

Cofer, after questioning eight grand jurors, withdrew the request for a court order. All agreed they didn't consider Estes a suspect in Marshall's death.

Marshall had been looking into Estes' manipulations of cotton acreage allotments before he was found on his ranch near here, shot five times with a bolt action rifle. The Agriculture Department later ruled that Estes obtained cotton allotments illegally and fined him $554,172.

The grand jury here is trying to determine whether Marshall was murdered or committed suicide. A justice of the peace ruled at the time that the bullet wounds were self-inflicted.

Two weeks ago, the body was exhumed and Dr. J. A. Jachimczyk, a Houston pathologist, said Marshall probably was murdered.

$48.5-Billion Measure Goes Back to House

Attempts To Cut Out Jet Plane Funds Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unanimous Senate approval of a massive $48.5-billion defense bill moved the record peacetime appropriation back to the House today.

There, leaders were expected to send the bulky measure to the usual compromise session of a Senate-House Conference Committee.

Bill Returns To House

The bill returns to the House with nearly $500 million in Senate increases over what the House originally voted. The differences must be resolved before the bill goes to President Kennedy.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., steered the big bill, carrying more than half the annual government budget, through the Senate in less than seven hours Wednesday. The vote for it was 88 to 0.

Most of the debate centered around futile attempts of Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to cut out an extra $320 million voted by the Senate Appropriations Committee to hasten development of the big jet reconnaissance strike aircraft known as the RS70.

Both Senators Defeated

Both senators were defeated by wide margins as they tried to slice RS70 margins back to the $171 million asked by President Kennedy and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to continue limited development of the huge experimental aircraft.

Air-minded senators backed the full $491 million asked by top Air Force leaders to develop a complete weapons system, including long-range radars, new missiles and other special subsystems.

During the debate Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said Kennedy "told me Sunday that even if extra funds are voted" for the RS70 he wouldn't spend them.

Outside Help Reported In Prison Break

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The three convicts who fled Alcatraz Island prison in San Francisco Bay may have had outside help, it was reported today.

The San Francisco Examiner said it has learned from a reliable source that the FBI is working on the theory the three men made it over the cold, swirling waters to the mainland and is checking on recent visitors to the prison.

A widening search by government agents is strengthening speculation the three—John Anglin, 32, his brother, Clarence, 31, and Frank Morris, 35, may have engineered the first successful escape from the 25-year-old maximum security institution.

Since the disappearance was discovered early Tuesday, heavily armed soldiers, now numbering 200, have been combing Angel Island in the possibility the convicts may have landed there on a driftwood raft in their flight from Alcatraz 1½ miles to the south. Alcatraz is 1½ miles north of the San Francisco shoreline.

A fourth convict was reported

Wall Street Wizard Flees

Withdrew $2 Million In Company Funds

NEW YORK (AP)—Wall Street wizard Edward M. Gilbert, who has admitted unauthorized withdrawals of almost $2 million from the company he headed, has flown to extradition-proof Brazil.

Gilbert stepped off a Varig Airlines jet in Rio de Janeiro Wednesday and went into seclusion.

In Rio, officials of the International Police Agency and the U.S. Embassy said they had received no information on Gilbert. It was reported, however, that Gilbert entered Brazil with a visa valid for 30 days and that if he wanted to stay longer he would have to apply for an extension.

At Idlewild Airport in New York, Gilbert bought a one-way ticket and said he might be staying in Rio "for about six weeks," the airline said.

Gilbert, 38, who rocketed to Wall Street fame four years ago when he practically "cornered" the stock of the E. L. Bruce Co. and became its president, made company check withdrawals amounting to $1,953,000 between May 28 through June 4. It was on May 28 that the stock market started its downward plunge.

What happened to the money has not been determined.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan is looking into the withdrawals.

Early Tuesday night the E. L. Bruce firm, a leading manufacturer of hardwood flooring, released a statement saying Gilbert voluntarily had disclosed the unauthorized withdrawals and that he had resigned.

The company quoted Gilbert as

Babysitter Admits Killing Akron Tot

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A 20-year-old babysitter, apparently unhappy over losing her job because of too many visits from her boy friend, told police she strangled a 4-month-old boy with a silk stocking.

Miss Rochelle Posey was charged with first-degree murder in the death of Michael Magier. She had telephoned police that she killed the child Wednesday. The boy was dead before police got him to a hospital.

"I feel sorry about it now," Miss Posey told a reporter. "I'm guilty. I don't care what happens to me."

"I didn't want to have to find another job. I knew I couldn't hold it. I got pretty upset, so I decided to take the baby's life," she said.

Norton Village Police Chief Forrest Diefendorff said he and two patrolmen found the child lying on a couch with a pillow over his

Stocks Near '62 Low Point

Losses Offset by Increasing Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market slipped at the opening today, but quickly turned mixed with a number of good gainers. Trading was heavy and the tape was late.

Depending on which of several yardsticks was used, it was just above or just below the 1962 low point hit on May 28 in the steepest one-day fall since 1929.

Losses of several big volume stocks ranged from a few cents to $1 and more, although these were offset by increasing gains. Some issues traded unchanged in price in sizable blocks.

Wednesday's hectic up-and-down session shoved the market to its third sharp loss of the week.

The averages were at odds on whether a new 1962 low was reached.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials crumbled to new ground. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks held just above its previous low and Standard & Poor's 500-stock index closed at its May 28 level.

Brokers differ on what constitutes a low to be tested. On the Dow Jones average, for example, some say the May 28 closing at 576.93 is the level while others think it is the intraday bottom of 563.24 reached about noon May 29 before a tremendous rally developed. The average wound up Wednesday at 574.04.

The market was battered by two selling waves with the one

GI Killed, 2 Wounded In S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Army sergeant has been killed and two other Americans wounded in a combat operation with Vietnamese troops near the Laotian frontier about 360 miles north of Saigon, a military spokesman said today.

The wounded, a captain and a sergeant reportedly not in serious condition, have been taken to a field hospital at Nha Trang, 200 miles northeast of Saigon.

Names of all three Americans were withheld until next of kin were notified.

The action, details of which were not disclosed, occurred in central Viet Nam's thick forests, where U.S. Army special forces are training local Vietnamese units to defend their villages against Viet Cong guerrillas who infest the area.

The sergeant is the fourth U.S. serviceman killed in combat since the United States increased its aid to President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces last December.

President's Major Programs Blocked

JFK Stymied by Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It can't be said that Congress has taken over the reins from President Kennedy, but it is certainly bouncing him around in the driver's seat.

In the 1960 presidential campaign he said "a do-nothing party will not do. Four more years of a Republican President blocking action by a Democratic Congress will not do."

"What we need, what we seek, what this campaign is intended to bring, is action instead of drift—leadership, not salesmanship—and dedication in place of mediocrity."

The picture has changed and now a Democratic President is being blocked by a Democratic Congress, where Democrats far outnumber Republicans, in one field after another.

Major programs have been killed, abandoned, or bottled up. And most lately the House and Senate have frustrated him a bit in foreign policy. Even his right arm in the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, has called for a re-examination of Kennedy's Southeast Asia policy.

Kennedy has deluged Congress with proposals—too many as it turns out—for many to be thrust aside as members of both House and Senate hurry to get home early for this fall's congressional elections.

He himself admits Congress will not try to pass all the legislation he sent up.

Take a look at what has been happening to just these few major items he mentioned:

His medical care bill looks so lost in the House Ways and Means Committee — where Democrats outnumber Republicans 15 to 10—that the Kennedy administration is willing to compromise now to save some fragments of it.

His youth employment opportunities bill is still in a House committee.

His proposal to aid higher education has passed both Houses but in different form and can't become law until the differences are ironed out.

His foreign trade bill, with additional power to cut tariffs, is out of the Ways and Means Committee which handled it but with changes which must have jolted him.

His tax revision bill passed the House but is bottled up in a Senate committee where, perhaps, it may be massacred.

And there are things he left unsaid: Last year he made a big pitch for aid to public schools but seems so much to have given up hope for it that, while it's still lying around, he has stopped talking of it.

He asked Congress to pass a law banning literacy tests in voting but the Senate killed that. He wanted a new department of urban affairs and housing but the House slaughtered that one.

Kennedy wants to raise the public debt limit from $300 billion to $308 billion. This is being kicked around in the House where there seems to be a strong mood to limit an increase to $306 billion or not raise it at all.

Last week both House and Senate, carried along by their anti-Communist fervor, took actions which were contrary to Kennedy's wishes and will make life a little tougher for him in trying to encourage Yugoslavia and Poland to become increasingly independent of Moscow.

And while Kennedy has promised to ask Congress to cut everybody's taxes—as of next Jan. 1—the powerful chairman of the same Ways and Means Committee, Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., says he doesn't support the idea.

Temporary Control of Laos By Red Is Opposed by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is working to head off a situation that would put pro-Communist Prince Souphanouvong in temporary control of Laos' new coalition government late this month.

The two other members of the three-man regime are scheduled to be out of the country, thus leaving the Red prince at the helm during the early pangs of the effort to turn the war-shattered little kingdom into a neutral nation.

U. S. officials said that at the very least they consider it bad psychology to leave command—even if only nominal—in the hands of just one member of the ruling group at this budding stage of the coalition.

As a result, the United States is reported to be urging that the neutralist premier designate Prince Souvanna Phouma, head of Laos' delegation to a 14-nation Geneva conference late this month. The conference is to ratify an agreement pledging Laos to neutrality in the cold war.

The third member of the Laoian triumvirate, pro-Western General Phoumi Nosavan, is slated to lead his country's delegation to Switzerland June 24 or 25, news dispatches from Laos reported Wednesday. Prince Souvanna is scheduled to attend the wedding of his daughter in Paris June 28.

Return of Diefenbaker to Power In Canada Expected

OTTAWA (AP)—Canadian and U.S. politics, though operating in widely different systems, bear this resemblance: Each has two major parties.

Some Canadians, with dubious exactitude, compare the currently ruling Conservative party to the Republicans and the opposition Liberal party to the Democrats.

The situation differs from that of the United States in that two minor parties are having an impact on the campaign for next Monday's parliamentary election. These are the New Democratic party, which has a Socialist base, and the Social Credit party—a rightist group which calls all other parties socialist.

The minor parties are claiming a large number of seats, and even in the major camps there is a tendency to concede them 12 to 20 seats of the 265 in Parliament. Thus, if the two big parties run close, as now appears possible, there could be a minority government, as in 1957.

Lester B. Pearson, the Liberal leader, told an election rally his party offers the only alternative the voters have to the present government.

"A vote for any other party is a vote for a party which cannot form a government," he said.

A few days later, Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, the Conservative leader, said votes would be wasted on New Democratic or Social Credit candidates.

"Only a sprinkling will be elected," he went on. "They have no hope."

Those who study the campaign lean to the feeling that Diefenbaker's government will be returned but with far less than the 208 seats it won in 1958. Conservative strategists say they can count more than the 133 seats needed for a majority. The Liberals talk in similar figures. Neither is quite sure where the minor parties will drain off votes.

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN
Preventive Medicine

Just about the most useful and least glamorized of medical specialties is that dealing with prevention. It is also the most unselfish and the least appreciated. Unselfish because it may mean loss of income to trained practitioners and specialists. Least appreciated because it furnishes few opportunities for television script writers.

To my great personal and professional embarrassment, I learned from a recent survey that the majority of practicing physicians have a better acquaintance with and a higher opinion of methods of cancer prevention that require individual surgery than of public health measures (such as the abandonment of cigarette smoking) which have universal application.

And from my mail I gather that my readers are more concerned with medicines that serve only to relieve symptoms, (tranquilizers, sleeping medicines, pain killers, cough sedatives, antihypertensives, cathartics) than with measures that seek to discover and then control or eliminate the causes for their ailments.

LET ME GIVE some examples of what I mean. Letters pour in from readers who seek relief from various lung conditions that produce cough and shortness of breath. Yet I cannot recall a single instance in which inquiry was made as to the possible cause for irritation of the delicate lung tissues.

By contrast, the causes for lung irritation, especially by inhalants, are major concerns of students of preventive medicine.

I draw your attention to these researches because already important observations and contributions are in the making. From these, many of you "hackers" and "hawkers" may derive knowledge and benefits.

WHILE SUFFICIENT has already been said of the effects of smoking, coal dusts, and smog on the bronchi and lungs, not enough emphasis has been placed on irritations caused by other inhalants such as dusts and molds that produce what is called "farmer's lung" or spores that cause "maple-bark disease" or nitrous oxide fumes in "silo-filler's disease."

And one of the ingredients of hair sprays (PVP) apparently accumulates in the finer bronchi and resists all efforts of the body to evict its most unwelcome presence.

HELD TO GRAND JURY
LISBON—Lloyd Wayne Gearin, 23, of Minerva, was bound over to the grand jury under $4,000 bond Tuesday by Juvenile Court Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 14-year-old Salineville girl. Gearin was released after posting bond.

So, even if you are a persistent cougher, how about concentrating your efforts on avoiding further irritation? It'll cost you less, and probably help you more, than all the cough medicines you see displayed on the counters.

Charges of Red Sympathisers In Churches Flayed

CLEVELAND (AP) — A United Theological Seminary professor said today charges concerning alleged Communist sympathizers in Protestant churches come mostly from persons antagonistic to social programs undertaken by the churches.

The Dayton professor, Dr. Newell Wert, told the Ohio East Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church it was the responsibility of the church "in the face of these charges and in the face of the real danger Communism does present to more vigorously apply the Christian gospel to all the affairs of man and society." Church programs in racial and equal rights issues were at the root of the criticism, he said. Dr. Wert referred specifically to churches he said were made by Birch Society leader Robert Welch alleging there are large numbers of Communist sympathizers in the Protestant churches and by Carl McIntyre, president of the American Council of Churches, who alleged that among translators of the revised standard version of the Bible were many Communist sympathizers.

"The fact of the matter is," he said, "that Christian traditions have a long record of social concern, and his kind of interest is essential to its witness in the world. In these times the irresponsible charges have served to cause leadership in churches to retrench in this social witness."

The English word "Bible" is derived through Medieval Latin from a Greek word which means simply "the books." The first zoo in the United States was established in Philadelphia in 1874.

Greatest of All Mythologists

The text of President Kennedy's speech at the Yale commencement exercises makes it plain the Harvard man had not underestimated the occasion. It was a major presidential address.

Its theme will support a continuing discussion, which all presidential speeches should do. "Our political debate, our public discourse on current domestic and economic issues, too often bears little or no relation to the actual problems the United States faces," says Mr. Kennedy, referring to such "mythologies" as the idea that federal deficits and inflation go hand in hand. Mr. Kennedy believes he has spotted other notions that cannot be supported by fact, too, such as the notion the federal government is too large, that it spends too much money and has too much power.

These things are debatable and should be debated. There can be no quarrel with the Kennedy thesis that people don't always know what they're talking about as they repeat the clichés of their generation.

BUT BEFORE the discussion wanders away from what seems to us to be the real point of President Kennedy's preoccupation with mythology, can it be agreed that he himself has been a prime producer of mythology?

The discussion would be likelier to stay close to the point if it first could be agreed that all political leaders are cast in the same role. Without exception the outs blame the ins for everything wrong and vice versa.

In the campaign of 1960 Mr. Kennedy, his numerous relations and his innumerable assistants made it known from every house-top and television tower that Dwight D. Eisenhower personally was to blame for the perverse behavior of students in Tokyo, the sagging index of gross national product, mean things being said about the United States in Latin America, failure to settle the German problem, the Russian problem, the farm problem and everything else was making the American people wish they could return to the good old days whose problems they'd never heard of.

This kind of thumb-in-the-eye campaigning was a tried and true formula. Conditions were considerably better than fair to middling, as conditions go, yet the Kennedy campaigners half convinced the country it was hanging on the ropes and needed to be rescued by New Frontiersmen.

THE SAME IDEA had worked in 1932, 1936, 1940, 1944 and 1948. The Democrats couldn't be blamed for trying it again. Yet in every one of their campaigns they hammered on the same breed of mythologies that young Mr. Kennedy now wishes would be put on the shelf and kept there. He's the one in the White House now.

The greatest of all manufacturers of domestic and economic mythology are the political parties—and the greater are the Democrats, who were banging away in the '30s on the myth that Herbert Hoover invented the depression and in 1960 were banging on new tune—that Dwight Eisenhower had invented the "non-boom" of the '50s.

Mr. Kennedy made a dandy speech at Yale. He was a credit to Harvard. It made us wish we could forget what he said in 1960. Never was more mythology squirted on more gullible people by more high-powered mythology squirters than was squirted over this country in the Kennedy presidential campaign.

Justice Black on Libel

There is no way to know if any members of the United States Supreme Court share Justice Hugo L. Black's point of view that the Constitution forbids damage suits for libel and slander.

A New York Times report of a forthcoming interview in the New York University Law Review most assuredly will be given the justices' close attention. Justice Black believes the First Amendment, which says Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of the press, says in precisely the same language that actions for libel and slander are illegal.

"I believe when our Founding Fathers, with their wisdom and patriotism, wrote this amendment they wanted to ordain that Congress, elected by the people, should not tell the people what religion they should have or what they should believe or say or publish, and that is about it. It says 'no law,' and that is what I believe it means."

This is not a new belief on the part of Justice Black. He has held it during nearly 25 years on the Supreme Court. "I believe with Thomas Jefferson," he says in the interview, "that it is time enough for government to step in to regulate people when they do something, not when they say something."

Suppose that in the years ahead other jurists were to follow Justice Black's lead and develop a line of reasoning that banned libel and slander actions in state courts, under the rule that all state rights are colored by interpretations of the federal Constitution? Would this leave the public exposed helplessly to malicious attack?

We cannot speak for Justice Black, but he apparently would say the danger of such attack does not concern him; that it is one of the risks that must be taken for the preservation of those restraints on government which guarantee the people's liberty.

The truth is that suits for libel and slander are based on hope of gain as often as they are based on provable damage. Unlikely as it must be judged to be that Justice Black has opened the door to a new concept of the First Amendment, he has given notice that one member of the Supreme Court would not be unfavorable to an argument that libel actions are unconstitutional per se.

Every Show On Its Merits

If our Hollywood spotters know what they are looking at, events leading up to the firing of Marilyn Monroe by 20th Century-Fox after a long series of publicized provocations have marked a turning point in motion picture history, they say.

Miss Monroe, everybody agrees, is one of the world's most attractive women. As an attraction at the boxoffice she is one of a few with value estimated in millions.

But as a star, this beautiful woman has had a fixed characteristic calculated to drive directors and producers out of their minds. The characteristic finally became a fixation during the filming of the 20th Century-Fox movie abandoned after Miss Monroe was released from the starring role.

She delayed production. Even if she had help in the film in question, she herself could have accounted for enough lost time to turn the project into a production nightmare. And what turning point is her release supposed to be marking?

Hollywood writers think it may mark the end of the star system that made the success of big movies turn on the drawing power of a dominant personality—the system made famous by Mary Pickford and the great stars of the silents, then carried into the talkies. The writers are surmising that movie-makers may get along without famous names and faces and makes every show stand on its merits.

That would be the day—the day when the movie mogul called in Gloria Gingsnap and said boxoffice reports show she is building up a following and this must not happen because it would make her a star, therefore she, the aforesaid Gloria Gingsnap must go back into obscurity because the studio and its remote-control owners burned their fingers once on stars who could pull in customers by the millions and they never want to go through that again, no sir.

That would be the day. You wonder sometimes what Hollywood writers eat for breakfast to think up such wild ideas before lunch.

Maybe Next Year

By Truman Twill

The honorary degrees have been ladled out again in all the places where they will do the most good. I was passed over.

Nothing I can do, say, or think will add one buck to any institutional building fund or tickle the fancy of the trustees of any financial foundation.

I cannot contribute a jot or tittle to the academic prestige of a college or university—and if the reader doesn't know it, "Jot or tittle" is from Matthew 5:18. I didn't know it, which is one more reason I never shall grace a commencement platform or program.

Neither can I "make the welkin ring" with oratorical clichés—and that is from Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night." The finest day I ever lived, which was during the latter part of the Coolidge administration, I could not make a speech worth listening to.

There isn't the slightest possibility I'll make enough money in newspaper business to endow anything. In the whole family tree of the Twills, even going out on the smallest branches, there isn't a moneybag anywhere.

Neither am I on the trail of anything big in science, literature, the lively arts or the dull arts. Whatever chance I ever might have had to enoble the stage vanished the night I muffed my cue as the roomer who doesn't get knocked off in "Lavender and Old Lace."

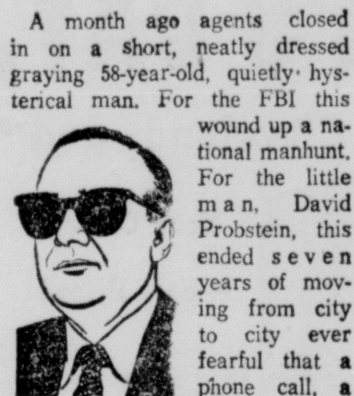

Oh well, maybe next year.

We'll Believe It When We See It!

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

A month ago agents closed in on a short, neatly dressed, graying 58-year-old, quietly hysterical man. For the FBI this wound up a national manhunt. For the little man, David Probst, this ended seven years of moving from city to city ever fearful that a phone call, a footstep, a tap on the shoulder would mean that old teamster friends from his home city of Indianapolis had caught up with him.

In these seven years everyone, including Mrs. Probst, who remarried in the interim, thought the Hoosier lawyer was dead—and buried in fields of Iowa corn.

When last heard from Probst, whom Jimmy Hoffa once lent $8,000 for a stake in the taxi business, had called Mrs. Probst from St. Louis early in June 1955. He said he was driving East with some friends. That was all. Then, just silence.

The FBI got the manhunt orders not too long ago.

PROBST was needed in a grand jury investigation of the accuracy of Hoffa's testimony before the McClellan committee back in '58. The FBI, using all its gadgetry, found Probst, flew him into Washington, and has kept him under 24-hour guard.

Why all the mystery surrounding Probst? The best clue to this newest probe of Hoffa comes from Sen. McClellan. On Sept. 18, 1958, the senator told his committee that:

"The committee has established substantial evidence that Mr. Hoffa did not tell the truth before the committee when he stated that his only interest in David Probst's State Cab Co. was an $8,000 loan. He repeatedly denied that he (Hoffa) had any further financial interest in that company."

"The committee has sent to the Department of Justice the records indicating that the State Cab Co., which allegedly belonged to David Probst, was, in fact, set up, established, and financed by Mr. Hoffa and Mr. Bert Brennan. We hope the Justice Department will pursue expeditiously this apparent willful perjury."

McCLELLAN told this to the investigating committee, in formal session, after it had heard Hoffa testify.

Under oath, Hoffa said, yes, he knew Probst. Yes, "we" had loaned him $8,000. This money had come from the "Hobren or Test Fleet." Haulaway Co., run by the Hoff and Brennan (Jimmy Hoffa's late buddy and union partner) combine.

And from committee counsel Robert Kennedy came the following: "Did you, Mr. Hoffa, have any other financial dealings with Mr. Probst, other than the $8,000?"

After a while, Hoffa said: "I was not in any business with Probst, and the only thing I had to do with Probst was this loan that I have discussed with you."

All this intrigues the Grand Jury. Why?—we'll soon know.

Kennedy persisted: "But you know of no other financial transactions that you had with Mr. Probst?"

"I don't," retorted Hoffa, "know of any of them."

UNDER OATH! That's definitive. That's what the grand jury has been probing since early this year. It's interested in two checks for $10,000 each issued to Probst by the Hobren operation.

But that isn't the only matter in this case which has intrigued the government. There is a matter of $125,000.

On Oct. 27, 1954, Jim Hoffa directed the opening of an account in the Fidelity Bank and Trust Co. of Indianapolis.

This was done by depositing a check for $125,000, dated Oct. 21, 1954. The check was drawn on the account of Teamsters Local 299, which keeps its money in a Detroit bank. Note, please that it was a checking account which the Teamsters opened in Indianapolis. Checking accounts draw no interest. The $125,000 was kept in the Indianapolis bank for almost four years. Not a penny was touched in any way. It simply lay there for almost four years earning no interest. Hoffa said the money was there to bolster the prestige and strength of a local teamsters outfit.

Te State Cab Co. of Probst et al. borrowed heavily from this same bank. Probst also was able to borrow from this bank.

All this intrigues the Grand Jury. Why?—we'll soon know.

Red Double Cross

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Russia, China at Cross Purposes In Asia

The biggest game of double cross the world has ever witnessed is going on in Southeast Asia. The Soviet Union is double-crossing its ally—Red China. The Red Chinese are double-crossing the Soviets.

Meanwhile the United States is playing a crafty game of double-crossing the Communists from achieving their main aim. For Red China's true aim is not merely to capture Laos, but to grab all of Southeast Asia. It may take quite a while to do it, but this is the long-range scheme as it is being unfolded step by step.

The Soviet Union's purpose, on the other hand, is actually to prevent the Red Chinese from achieving a mastery of the Southeast Asia area, while ostensibly giving them support.

This means that, for the moment, the idea of a unity of factions in Laos — sometimes called a coalition government — is acceptable to the Russians and, for exactly opposite reasons, also to the Red Chinese.

The Soviets are confident that, by their methods of infiltration, they can control the so-called neutral government of Laos, while the Red Chinese think they can do the same through their own techniques. But the real objective of Red China is to get hold of South Vietnam and Thailand, as well as Laos.

THE UNITED STATES has put up a roadblock against the conquest of Laos by sending Marines in substantial numbers to near-by Thailand and a fleet to adjacent waters to show the Communists that America means business and will even intervene in Laos if it becomes necessary.

It was this move, rather than any feeling of forbearance, which caused Red China and the Soviets to let the coalition government emerge in Laos.

Whether the recent activities by the United States have effectively stopped the Red Chinese plan to take over Southeast Asia, or merely caused a temporary interruption, cannot be determined at this time. Unquestionably, each side is watching the other and if there is any sign of faltering on the part of America, developments can come quickly and decisively.

What seems incredible today is the way the peoples of the West have allowed their own propaganda to become so weak and vacillating in the face of the biggest march of imperialism the present century has witnessed.

The Soviet Union has already extended its empire far and wide to cover more territory than the czars of Russia ever hoped to conquer.

Red China has moved into neighboring areas, too, and has attacked countries across its borders. If the Red Chinese weren't restrained by fears of Western military action, they would not hesitate to make a grab for India and Pakistan as well.

Incidentally, the Soviet Union, though claiming to be neutral, has been sending military supplies from North Vietnam to Laos, and yet criticizes the United States for sending military advisers to Laos.

THE RED CHINESE, for the time being, are concentrating their strategy on Southeast Asia but they are not sure where the Soviets may stand if a crisis comes.

It is this, rather than ideological differences, which may have caused talk of estrangement in relations between the two big Communist allies.

The true imperialists in the world today, therefore, are the Soviets and the Red Chinese. Yet official American propaganda hesitates to recognize this truth and to characterize it plainly in daily broadcasts.

Sen. Thurmond, D-SC, has recently called attention to the timidity of American officials in the phrasing of their public statements about the Communists. A Senate subcommittee has done a very good job in exposing the weaknesses in American propaganda.

Maybe Radio Free Europe will have to carry on the real burden of the propaganda war. It's a private operation, financed largely by individual Americans. Many so-called neutral nations are being fooled by the Soviet and Red Chinese imperialists. They have been listening to the Communist cries of colonialism while at the same time shutting their eyes to the continued imperialism of the Soviet Union and Red China.

WHAT HAS really confused the outside world is the way the Communists have operated in Southeast Asia. They have refrained from a strategy of direct invasion and, as President Kennedy describes it in a report to Congress this week, "have turned to the use of internal subversion, infiltration, and guerrilla warfare."

Thus, the President points out that there are 200 combat divisions and more than 4,000 jet aircraft, as well as sizable naval forces, poised in the Far East. These forces can be swung into action in Southeast Asia whenever the Communists feel the time is ripe and they have enough internal support to warrant a takeover and conquest.

Women's Knowledge

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What surprises men most about women is the things they know—and don't know.

And as a man grows older, the more he somewhat grudgingly admires the unexpected wisdom he finds in women as the custodians of human folk knowledge.

The big difference between the sexes in matters of information—allowing for numerous exceptions—is that the male mind concentrates on the big picture, the feminine mind on the little picture.

I thought my daughter summed up the situation the other day with a remark philosophically profound for a 9-year-old.

"Daddies know about things," she said. "But mommies know about people and families."

Isn't that really true? Don't men think more about the big events that make up the outside world, while women think more about the small events that control their personal worlds?

A man's knowledge is generalized; a woman's is specific. Ask a woman about who fought whom at the Battle of Hastings and she is likely to reply blithely, "I didn't even know they had a quarrel. By the way, who are the Hastings?"

But if she does know a family named Hastings, she probably can rattle off the individual characteristics and ultimate fate of every member of that tribe for three generations.

Men often become exasperated at women for some of the things they don't know—and never seem to care to learn. Such as: importance of getting places on time, when to turn off their terribly accurate memories, how to balance a bank account, how to drive a car properly or when to drop a subject and shut up—particularly if it's a subject she knows nothing about.

Of course, men are really wrong in some of these matters and cling to them only out of male prejudice and vanity. Most women who drive do so very well.

It is in the relations between people, particularly those in her own family, that women are profoundly and uncannily wise.

She can tell at a glance when her child comes in the door whether he has done something wrong, or something went amiss at school.

The probable reason for the difference between what men and women know is that men spend more time reasoning with their heads, while women place more importance in what they learn by thinking with their hearts.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: For those who want to make easy-to-care-for, long-lasting drapes . . . use plain colored chenille bedspreads. They can be thrown in the washing machine and either dried on the line or in a dryer. Mine never seem to wear out.

To defrost your upright deep freeze, wait until the supply of food is low, remove and wrap in newspapers, leave door open and set an electric fan on a chair and let it blow in the freezer. Note: I said to set the fan on a chair and NOT in the freezer.

I defrost my freezer in about 20 minutes by this method, using bath towels to soak up the water. MRS. ELWOOD POWELL JR.

For those of you who have out-sized windows . . . bedspreads are wonderful for making draperies. They are cheap, too.

They are no trouble at all to make. Just split the spread in half and hem the torn sides. Make a heading at the top to run your rods through. These may also be pinch-pleated, if you are so inclined. Bedspreads are especially good for draw drapes, as they do not have to be lined.

For older homes with long narrow windows, bedspreads can't be beaten for draperies and curtains. Watch for your sales. Many stores put these spreads on sale when they get down to broken stock.

I suggest that you consider buying full size bedspreads no matter what size your window is. These make the drape fuller and they are usually the same price . . . when on sale.

I bought the spreads with fringe around the edges. The fringe was left on the spreads and used on the inside and bottom of the curtain in place of the usual ruffle. Real cute.

I also would like to pass on another hint. When making these curtains . . . use a BIG stitch on your sewing machine. You will have no "pull" on a curtain as you ordinarily do in clothing.

A big stitch goes faster and you can make a straighter seam and hem. A also suggest using mercerized thread when sewing on hob nail or chenille spreads.

And if you have maple or ranch type furniture, try the white hob nail spreads. They are so colonial looking. Later if you get tired of the white, which I did, throw the spreads in your washing machine and tint them! I tinted one set pale peach. The next year when I got tired of peach, I just bleached them white again in my machine.

A year later I tinted them turquoise. What a welcome change this was. Two years later I gave them away. And, just like Mrs. Powell says, they were still good as new.

The spreads can also be put in a dryer—without heat—and tumbled to remove dust. Makes them look so fresh and clean. Buys-up the tufts, too.

ern facilities, done without the benefit of public fund drives. The monies were raised by private donations, bequests, foundation grants and through economical operation.

Metzger commented that board policy, which is to provide excellent hospital care at minimum cost to patients and to operate in the best interests of the community, was carried out under Mosher's administration.

The hospital has also absorbed the cost of charity work, far in excess of outside support, he stated.

Mosher has had several articles published concerning innovations in hospital management. In 1959 he was given national recognition by "Hospital Topics" in a two-part article for his accomplishments in hospital cost control. He was later recognized for community public relations effort in writing a series of newspaper articles about hospitals.

Metzger said "that in his own personal opinion Mr. Mosher has done more for the Salem City Hospital than anybody who has ever been associated with the hospital".

Airline

sues. Kennedy urged acceptance of his proposal both in the interest of the public and the airlines and their employees.

"At the moment," Goldberg said as the meetings broke up, "as far as I'm concerned the talks are over and the union is free to strike."

Announcement of the new session came after union negotiators had conferred with government mediators on a settlement offer made by the companies during the early morning hours.

The last-ditch meeting had lasted 21 hours, running more than 12 hours past the 6:30 p.m. deadline the Flight Engineers International Association had set. Goldberg had flown from New York to take a personal hand.

The five-man union team talked with Undersecretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and other mediators for about 15 minutes after the company offer was advanced, then emerged with a word of the Goldberg meeting.

Goldberg, in his shirtsleeves after a sleepless night, told newsmen there would be no word on settlement prospects until after he talked with both sides.

A union source said at that time that no settlement had been reached.

At issue was a double-barreled problem: wages and the size of crews. The latter is the chief stumbling block. The airlines—Trans World Airlines, Pan American World Airways and Eastern Air Lines—want to reduce the cockpit crew on jets from four to three by combining duties of one of the three pilots with those of the flight engineer.

The big question: will the pilots' union or the engineers' take over the third man's job.

A strike by the 1,700 engineers would shut down the three lines' domestic and overseas operations and would idle 62,000 workers.

The union's standard contracts forbid such treatment, but Scott said the club owners refused to sign the contracts because, among other things, the required reporting would disclose their income from prostitution and other rackets.

Other witnesses including Ernest Fast, recently fired as AGVA's Midwest regional director, have testified the protective clause was not enforced, even at clubs which did sign contracts.

Fast testified he was fired on trumped up charges that he had accepted money from a charity show promoter, but that the real reason was that he cooperated with the subcommittee and refused to tell AGVA's administrative secretary Jackie Bright how much information Fast was giving the Senate subcommittee investigators.

Bill

Robertson told the Senate, however, that McNamara had informed him privately that "it might be wise" to put some extra millions into developing the RS70 as a future weapons system.

The House had voted $224 million for the RS70.

Rejected by Voice Vote

Also rejected by voice vote was an attempt by Proxmire to remove $280 million appropriated for another big aircraft carrier for the Navy.

The Senate bill would require that the Army's National Guard be maintained at a strength of 400,000 and its Reserves at 300,000 a year from now. The Pentagon had proposed 367,000 for the National Guard and 275,000 for the Reserves.

saying his actions were directed to "the protection of an acquisition program on behalf of the corporation and, in my judgment, were in the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders."

E. L. Bruce Jr., chairman of the company, ordered a complete audit of the firm's books. Bruce, saying the withdrawals were made in the form of checks, declined to say to whom the checks were payable or how long the audit would take. However, company officials said the firm is in good financial shape. They also said it has a surety bond totaling $750,000.

in on the escape plot but didn't flee. He was identified as Allen Clayton West of Atlanta, Ga. The four used spoons to chisel loose ventilator covers leading to a service passage behind their cells.

From there the Anglin brothers and Morris climbed up a pipe, over a roof and a fence and then down to the water's edge.

Warden Olin Blackwell said Tuesday he didn't believe the men could have made it to freedom by swimming without aid.

At a news conference Wednesday, Fred Wilkinson, assistant federal director of prisons, revealed that authorities now believe that Morris and the Anglin brothers are off the island.

face. A woman's silk stocking was wound tightly around his throat. Dieffendorff said the babysitter gave this account:

Her employer, Mrs. Ruth Magier, with whom she stayed, called from work and asked if Miss Posey's boy friend was there. Told that he was, Mrs. Magier told the babysitter to order him to leave. Mrs. Magier returned home and the boy friend was still there. She ordered him to leave, told Miss Posey it would be her last day of work there, and returned to work. The babysitter said she took Michael from his crib, laid him on the couch and got a stocking from the bathroom.

Dieffendorff quoted Miss Posey as saying she choked the baby for 20 minutes. He said she appeared "as cool as a cucumber" when police arrived.

She was held without bond in Summit County Jail.

Her mother, Mrs. Ralph Posey of Barberton, was quoted by Dieffendorff as saying the girl had been in a state industrial school for delinquent girls and the Akron Detention Home.

Hearing Testimony Conflicts

Probers Question President Of Company In Estes Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators question Commercial Solvents president Maynard C. Wheeler today about a sharp conflict of testimony on the firm's dealings with Billie Sol Estes and a reported $4-million Estes cache in Switzerland.

Wheeler challenged at almost every point Wednesday testimony given before a Texas court of inquiry by Frank Cain, a lawyer representing a finance company to which Estes was heavily in debt.

After Wheeler read his prepared statement before the House government Operations subcommittee, its members spent most of the session asking background questions.

Commercial Solvents sold Estes liquid fertilizer—anhydrous ammonia—and loaned him money to bankroll his grain storage operations. The Pecos, Tex., financier now is under indictment on charges of fraud, his business empire has collapsed and he says he is bankrupt.

Wheeler said that although Estes, 37, still owes Commercial Solvents $5.7 million the debt is amply secured by assignment of payments for surplus grain storage and other security.

The Agriculture Department has ordered removal of government-owned surplus grain from Estes' installations and payments have been impounded since Estes was indicted in April.

Estes was indicted on charges he sold chattel mortgages on fertilizer tanks that didn't exist.

Wheeler told the subcommittee that much of Cain's testimony at Dallas was "false and defamatory."

"This attempt," Wheeler said,

"to associate Commercial Solvents and its officers with a Swiss bank account, or with a purpose of putting Estes into business in Brazil or of using him as a consultant in Switzerland, in furtherance of some criminal conspiracy, criminal intent, or other improper motive is slander of the most vicious kind."

$23,000 CAMPAIGN COST
CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cuyahoga County Democratic organization spent $23,000 supporting Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy in his bid for the gubernatorial nomination against Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in the primary election, according to an expense account filed at the board of elections.

Hanoverton

Ten members of Troop 52 recently attended the camporal trip at Wellsville. The boys were accompanied by Jerry Morrow, Duane Faloon and Rev. Alonzo Wise. The troop won two blue ribbons.

On June 3 a Court of Honor for the Troop was held at the Hanoverton Christian Church. Those receiving awards were James McClure, first class; Larry McDevitt, second class; Steve Stambaugh, first class and radio merit; Delwin Wickersham, scholarship merit badge.

UPHOLDS CLOSING LAW

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—The 9th District Court of Appeals has upheld the Sunday closing law conviction of a discount store assistant manager whose defense was that he observed the Sabbath on Saturdays.

Allen Katz, assistant manager of a Giant Tiger store, was fined $25 and costs last Jan. 5. The appeals court ruled Wednesday Katz was aiding and abetting his employer in violations of the Sunday closing law. It said the fact he attended church the day before he violated the closing law was not a legal defense.

Educational Construction May Hit Record High In '62

By TERRY FERRER
Herald Tribune News Service
NEW YORK — School and college construction is booming. There is hardly a campus uncongested by bulldozers and cranes, scarcely a big school district that is not talking about, hoping for, planning or building a school or an addition.

In fact, educational construction in 1962 may hit an all-time peak of some $4 billion.

But there are already signs that the boom may become a slump, perhaps as early as 1963. School bond election results for 1961 are now complete, they show a drop by more than half in dollar value against 1960.

The Investment Bankers Association of America reported last week that the dollar value of approved issues dropped from $1.75 billion in 1960 to $860 million in 1961.

Inevitably the drop will be reflected sooner or later in curtailed construction.

THE ESTIMATED $4 billion in construction this year was predicted last week by the monthly educational magazine Overview. Its annual survey of 19,000 administrators in public and private schools and colleges showed that more than $3.77 billion was spent on 9,324 buildings and additions in 1961 while $375 million more went into furnishings and equipment for these buildings.

Dr. Archibald B. Shaw, editor of Overview and former superintendent of schools in Scarsdale, N. Y., was among those who predicted "a big slump" in 1963 building.

"Up to 1958," he said, "there was a steady flow upward of construction after the war. Then 1959 took a drop partly because of anticipation of Federal aid, which never came, and now we're climbing again."

Dr. Shaw pinpointed the reasons for the rejections that have been plaguing many a school district. The Investment Bankers Association survey showed that 1961 approvals were only 68 per cent of the dollars proposed, while in 1960 approvals were as high as 81 per cent of proposals.

"WE HAVE all seen the steadily increasing resistance of voters to higher taxes," Dr. Shaw said. Hence school boards and school superintendents are hesitant to propose new bond issues in large sums for fear of rejection. The IBA reported that the dropped from 1,189 in 1960 to 977 last year. Local districts tend to solve their space problems, in lieu of new buildings with such makeshift solutions as larger class sizes, rented classroom space and double session.

The second factor is that districts are on their second, third or fourth go-around in bond issues. "In the early 1950s," Dr. Shaw said, "many districts would pass issues and brag about their first new school building in 20 years. When you get around to the fourth time . . ."

Thirdly, he said some districts are reaching the limits of their bonded indebtedness.

THE IBA survey showed that elementary and secondary school bond sales increased by 15 per cent from 1960 to 1961, or from $2.2 billion to more than $2.5 billion.

Dr. Bill Zenta, IBA's director of research, also felt that the number of unsold issues might take up any threatened slack in school construction. He pointed to the fact that of all municipal bonds authorized in elections from 1.56 through 1961, more than half—53 per cent—remain unsold this year. The total dollar volume of unsold municipal bonds stands at more than $11. billion in almost 6,000 authorizations.

Dr. Aenta also said that the leveling off of the war baby population — they're now headed for college — would be reflected soon in less school building.

At any rate, 1962 may still be the biggest year for new classrooms, dormitories, science buildings, libraries and physical education buildings. One can only hope that the voters, tired of hazardous school housing and bulging classrooms, will make a better record this year in approving buildings for the future.

BUG-EYED — Donald Olskey, 3, of Whitestone, N. Y., is wide-eyed at the prospect of a butterfly lighting on his cheek instead of on a flower.

Real Estate Tax Forms To Be Mailed

LISBON — Tax statements for the last half of 1961 taxes payable in 1962 are expected to be in the mail by June 25, according to Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer. They will carry a deadline of July 20.

The statements are based on ownership of property as of Jan. 1, 1961, and will go to approximately 25,000 taxpayers.

Tax statements are mailed as an aid to the collection. Failure of the statements to reach owners gives them no legal defense against penalties, Judge said.

If you purchased property after Jan. 1 of any year, the law requires the title to appear in the former owner's name on county June collection of the following year.

If you assumed the tax as part of the purchase price, to obtain statements, in addition to the recording of the deed, you must notify the treasurer's office, giving a description of the property purchased and the name of the former owner, Judge said.

Try Shrimp Sauce On Salmon Loaf

Fish can make a superlative supper or luncheon dish especially when it is served as a moist flavorful salmon cereal loaf topped with shrimp sauce. Frozen shrimp soup makes a tasty andeasy-to-prepare sauce—merely heat the contents of a can and pour over the salmon loaf.A delightful quality of this salmon is that it appeals to all ages. Young children enjoy its flavor and texture and these very qualities give it real adult appeal. It's especially easy on the budget for informal entertaining.

Arcadia Roast Beef

Here's something different—but good, too. A new way to cook the Sunday roast beef. It is a southern Louisiana recipe, from the bayou country.

ACADIAN ROAST BEEF

(About 12 servings)
4 tablespoons instant minced onion, ¼ teaspoon instant minced garlic, 3 tablespoons water, ¼ cup cider vinegar, 2½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, 5 lb. roast beef, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 1 teaspoon water.Combine instant minced onion and garlic, the 3 tablespoons water, vinegar, salt, black pepper and red pepper. Let stand 5 minutes to soften onions. With a paring knife, cut 1-inch slits about ½ inches apart in all sides of the roast, sticking the knife to the middle of the roast.Open slits with the index finger and fill each with about ½ teaspoon of the onion mixture, using the point of a teaspoon. Cover and marinate for 4 or 5 hours or overnight.Place roast on a rack in a baking pan. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 3 hours or until tender, removing the aluminum foil 40 minutes before cooking time is up to brown roast.Remove roast and rack from pan. Skim excess fat from pan drippings with a large spoon.
Mix cornstarch with the 1 teaspoon water and add to drippings.
Stir and cook until gravy is slightly thickened. Serve meat with rice or potatoes and gravy.Largest known deposits of

Hanoverton Group Tables Action on Aid to Students

HANOVERTON — Action on a proposed new fund to aid college-bound students from United Local and Franklin Township School Districts has been tabled by the Civic Benefit Association until August, president Charles Gause reports.

The fund, although not a true scholarship fund, would be used to aid worthy students in obtaining education beyond high school. A sum has not been decided upon.

A petition bearing 40 names has been completed and presented to association directors, proposing "that the by-laws of the association be amended to the extent that funds be made available to worthy students of United School and Franklin Township districts for the purpose of furthering their college careers and/or specialized training after leaving high school".

Two meetings have been held for the purpose of discussing the petition but no decision has been reached. Gause says an association meeting will be scheduled in August, followed by an open meeting in September to further pursue the matter.

The CBA, which began 11 years ago when the community was searching for a new doctor, derives its money from charitable individuals, churches, lodges, 4-H clubs and other organizations in the area.

Other officers are Paul Flugan of RD, Lisbon, vice-president and Mrs. Paulina Sloss of Hanoverton. An equal number of directors are from Hanoverton and Franklin Township.

Two U.S. Officers Are Penalized for Beating Korean

CAMP HOWZE, Korea (AP)—Two U.S. Army officers were reprimanded, fined $600 and suspended from command functions for six months today for beating a Korean.

The incident had touched off a storm of South Korean demands for jurisdiction over American servicemen who commit offenses while off duty.

A nine-member court martial imposed the sentences on 1st Lt. David W. Swanson, 25, of Galesburg, Ill., and Thomas M. Wilde, 25, of Wordsworth, Ill.

The two pleaded guilty of unlawful detention, assault and battery and giving false testimony under oath. The military court deliberated on the sentence for more than an hour. The fines are to be paid in $100 monthly installments. The sentences are subject to review by higher military authorities.

Swanson, a company commander, and Wilde, his executive officer, were accused of robbing and beating Lee Il-yong, 30, after the Korean was caught inside their area May 29. Lee suffered head injuries, a broken finger and multiple bruises, the Army said.

The incident touched off student demonstrations last week at two universities in Seoul and one in Taegu, South Korea's third city, demanding that the United States quickly sign a status-of-forces agreement with the Seoul government.

Two More Orbital Flights Planned This Year by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two more manned orbital flights around the earth are planned this year by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans Jr., associate director of NASA, told the Senate Space Committee Wednesday that plans call for both flights to be three-orbit affairs similar to those made by astronauts John H. Glenn Jr. and Malcolm Scott Carpenter.

"If we feel we have all the information we need, and if we think it will be safe, we will try for longer flights," he added.

Also scheduled this year, Seamans said, is another try at obtaining television pictures of the moon and landing an instrument package on the moon's surface. The United States has failed in eight attempts to launch a successful shot at the moon, although the last one, in April, achieved a landing on the far side of the moon.

Another project planned this year, Seamans said, is a fly-by of the planet Venus, using a modified version of the Ranger spacecraft employed in the moon shots.

Jesus' Purpose Cited by Graham

CHICAGO (AP)—To believe in the gospel of God and insure salvation from hell, Christians must believe that Christ died for our sins and that he rose from the dead, says evangelist Billy Graham.

Graham told an estimated 33,000 persons at the 15th rally of the 19-day "Crusade for Christ" in Chicago Wednesday night that Jesus Christ "came to earth with a strange purpose."

"It was so different from that of other human beings who cling to life and who go through life bent on living," Graham said. "Christ came to earth for the purpose of dying, for he was bent on delivering men from sin."

"The fact that Christ died for our sins and rose again is the basis upon which a holy and righteous God can forgive sin and receive us to himself. This one who was crucified now lives in resurrection power in glory," Graham said.

By his death and resurrection, Christ gave mankind a gospel of peace, Graham said.

E. Palestine Plans Blood Donor Drive

EAST PALESTINE — The recruiting committee of the Blood Bank Wednesday night moved to bolster the collection of blood by conducting a house-to-house canvass July 5 and 6. Lagging collections prompted the group to take the action.

The door-to-door calls will be made not only to recruit donors but also to survey the potential for giving blood in the city and area, reports Robert Smith, recruiting chairman.

The bloodmobile from the Cleveland Red Cross will be at the Methodist Church July 10 from 1 to 7 p.m. When the unit was here in January, 115 pints were collected. Eighty-eight pints were given last July.

The collecting area includes New Waterford, Rogers, Unity and Negley. General chairman is Rev. Chalmers Goshorn. Mrs. A. M. Simpson will be in charge of the New Waterford canvass and Charles Hallom in charge of Rogers. Others will be named later.

Lecturer Mrs. Guy Frantz set the theme "Grange Week," which was observed for the first time June 3-10. All granges were asked to plant a tree on grange property or in a park. A maple tree donated by Master and Mrs. Morlan was planted on grange property June 6.

The biography of Oliver Hudson Kelley, founder of the grange, was given by A. L. Rudebeck, and the history of the "Battle Hymn of Republic" written by Julia Ward Howe, was given by Miss Priscilla Bailey.

Dedication of the tree planted June 6 was given by Mrs. Anna Aiken, Miss Linda Calvin, Miss Carol Shade, Mrs. Ella Sebrall, Ronald Wilhelm, Clifford Aiken, Carl Bailey, Mrs. Myrtle McPherson and Morlan.

The home economics committee reported the cookie and place mat contest for the grange members will be held July 25 at the grange hall. Mt. Nebo cook books have been completed and are available. The grange's next meeting will be June 27 at 8:30 p.m. at the grange hall.

Tribe Splits Twin Bill, 2-4, 4-1, Still Half-Game Out

Donovan Wins 9th As Senators Fall

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dick Donovan, the Cleveland Indians' star right-hander, is the first nine-game winner in the American League.

Frustrated in his last three starts, Donovan came through Wednesday night as the Tribe beat Washington 4-1 in the second game of a two-night doubleheader. Cleveland lost the opener 4-2.

The split kept the Indians a half-game behind New York and Minnesota.

Donovan Allows Six Hits

Donovan, who toiled for the Senators last season, now has a 9-2 record. He had little trouble defeating his former teammates, allowing them only six hits.

The veteran pitcher got good support from catcher John Romano, who belted a three-run homer in the fourth.

In the sixth, Cleveland made it 4-1 on rookie Al Luplow's double and Francona's single.

Donovan's victory ended a fairly long quest for his ninth triumph and snapped a five-game winning streak for the last-place Senators.

If it weren't for a few miscues in the opener, the Tribe might have won two. Washington scored two unearned runs.

Loser Pete Ramos (3-3) permitted only five hits in the first game, but two of them were homers.

Cleveland scored both its runs in the sixth.

The Senators got the tying run in their half of the sixth when Claude Osteen popped one into left that fell among three Indians for a double. He then moved around on Woodie Held's bobbie and a sacrifice fly.

Kindall Drops Pop-Up

Washington went ahead in the seventh when Jerry Kindall dropped a pop up by Osteen, scoring Jimmy Piersall, who had doubled.

Cleveland winds up its three-game series against Washington

Suit May Be Filed To Halt Sale Of Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Both the Crosley Foundation trustees, who sold the Cincinnati Reds baseball team this spring, and William O. DeWitt, who bought it, were playing it cagey today to reports that the Ohio attorney general was planning legal action to upset the sale.

DeWitt and Charles Sawyer, attorney for the foundation, both declined comment Wednesday night when informed that a suit to rescind the sale may be filed before the end of the week in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court.

Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy entered the case after reports that a Cincinnati group headed by Joseph F. Rippe, a real estate dealer, had offered $5.5 million for the National League champions before DeWitt bought the team for $4.625 million.

Under Ohio law, the attorney general has the power to supervise the handling of charitable trusts like the Crosley Foundation.

Ted Saker, first assistant to McElroy, said Wednesday night the legal action will be taken to meet a 90-day deadline since the sale March 23 and because the terms of the sale "were not very advantageous" to the foundation.

Bickerstaff Hottest Pilot At Canfield With Four Victories

Who is going to stop Jim Bickerstaff? That's the big question at Canfield Speedway this season. The Warren speedster has taken a wide lead in the late model point standings and he will be back here on Saturday night when the late models and amateurs get together for a 10-race program.

Bickerstaff has rolled up four victories, two in a row with his 1956 Chevrolet. Each time he wins, Jim goes to the tail end of the field in the 26-lap duels, but it appears to make no difference.

Bickerstaff has been racing since 1955 and this is by far his best showing. He started off last year

170 Veteran Golfers Set for Seniors Play

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some 170 veteran golfers were to tee off at Scioto Country Club today in the 36-hole, medal play Ohio Seniors tournament.

John Jacob of Canton went into the two-day tourney as defending champion by virtue of winning the title in 1960. Rain washed out last year's event, which was to have been played in Dayton.

Other contenders included Allen Rankin of Columbus, who has won the title nine times, and former champions Walter Cope of Lima, John Valuska of Steubenville and Don Gill of Cincinnati.

The Ohio Golf Association sponsors the tournament for golfers between the ages of 55 and 86.

Yale's football team will meet the same rivals the Eli faced last season, and they are scheduled in the same order as in 1961.

with three victories early in the season, but faded before the hard-driving Bill Forney of Youngstown.

All of the top late model stars again will be on hand this Saturday night for some stiff competition. Don Sawyer of Girard has to do some repairs. He lost a wheel on his 1956 Pontiac last week and it hurt his chances in the standings.

Some 80 late models and amateurs will be in the lineup. The amateur field will find another veteran returning to action. He is Jerry Carver of Canfield. Carver and Bill Williams are building up a Chevrolet and may have it ready this week.

Twins Score 4-2 Win Over Angels

By JIM JACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Allison is the latest hero in the rotating cast of stars with Minnesota's surprising Twins, who again find themselves barely out of the American League lead they've been pursuing since April.

Allison clipped Los Angeles reliever Ryne Duren for a two-run homer with two out in the eighth inning Wednesday night, powering the Twins to a come-from-behind 4-2 decision over the Angels. The victory hoisted Minnesota back to second place only 10 percentage points behind the New York Yankees, whose home game against Detroit was rained out.

Cleveland slipped back to third—but still only a half game off the pace—in a doubleheader split with Washington, winning the second game 4-1 after dropping the opener 4-2. Kansas City knocked over Chicago again, 4-3, and Don Schwall's two-hit pitching led Boston over Baltimore 4-0.

Dean Chance, fined along with fellow Angel pitcher Bo Belinsky after an early-morning peccadillo, started against the Twins and did well but was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh and Minnesota proceeded to cash in against Duren.

Minnesota reliever Ray Moore was the winner. The Angels got their two runs off Jack Kralick in the second.

Schwall showed the form that made him a 15-game winner and AL rookie of the year last season, handcuffing the Orioles in the wind and drizzle at Boston's Fenway Park. Boston collected six of its eight hits and all four of its runs against Chuck Estrada, now 3-8.

The Athletics topped the White Sox with a two-run rally in the seventh.

Ed Rakow got the pitching victory with solid relief from Gordon Jones. The loss went to John Buzhardt.

Havlicek Signs Pro Grid Pact With Browns

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Will John (Hondo) Havlicek of Ohio State, one of the nation's greatest defensive basketball players, be able to switch his talents successfully to the rugged National Football League as a pass-catcher?

The Cleveland Browns, who signed the 6-foot-5 Havlicek on Wednesday feel he has a great future, although he hasn't played a football game for almost five years.

"The boy has great hands, fine speed and great coordination," said Coach Paul Brown. "In addition, he's quick mentally and there's little doubt in my mind that he has all the equipment to become a fine professional football player."

Havlicek, 22, said he passed up good offers from two champions—the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association and the Cleveland Pipers of the American Basketball League—because "I want to find out what I can do in football."

The Browns drafted Havlicek in the seventh round last December. Brown and club president Art Modell declined to state the amount of the contract, but both stressed the 205-pounder must make the squad on merit in training camp along with other players. He has no guarantee against being cut.

A T-formation quarterback who won Ohio honors at Bridgeport, High School in football and basketball, Havlicek said the Aurora tryout "convinced me that I would like to try football."

Havlicek played the shadow of three-time All-America Jerry Lucas at Ohio State, although he averaged more than 15 points a game in helping the Buckeyes to three straight Big Ten championships and the finals of the NCAA tournament in each year. The Bucks won the national crown in 1960.

Dr. E. E. Watson, of Fern Creek, Ky., who is also one of the more successful veterinarians and breeders, will be numbered among the early arrivals as his shipment is enroute to Waterford Park today.

Racing Secretary Harry R. Bell announced today that there were some stalls available to horsemen interested in racing here. He stated, "Horsemen shipping to Waterford for the summer meeting will have about 175 more days of continuous racing in the Northern Panhandle, between here and Wheeling Downs, with the same policy of operation in existence between the two tracks, now under the personal leadership of James F. Edwards."

Thoroughbred racing will resume at Waterford Park on July 2 for 55 days, with a post time of 4:15 p.m. on weekdays and 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Beaver Valley Seeks 3rd Victory of Year

The Beaver Valley Polo aggregation will be seeking its third victory of the season when it tangles with the Akron Polo Club Saturday at 7:30 p.m. on the Darlington, Pa. field.

Riding for the Beaver Valley team will be Paul Powers, Jimmy Watson, Ronnie and Glenn Tetmanza, Bob Watterson and Phil Thompson. Akron will be relying on Jimmy Barr, Joe Botak, Jack Arnold, Bill Mahn and Dick Knepper.

Palmer Favored 5-1 In U.S. Open But Player Is Determined To Win

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

OAKMONT, Pa. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, bold and confident, is a 5-1 favorite in the 62nd U.S. Open golf championship beginning today but no one will be trying harder to win than Gary Player.

"When I started out as a professional golfer I set as my goal winning the British Open, and your Masters and Open championships," the South African said today while awaiting the first round over the rain-softened Oakmont Country Club course.

"If and when I win the U.S. Open, I'll feel I've achieved what I set out to do."

Won First Title in '59

Player, now 26, achieved his first major championship — the British Open—in 1959. He won the Masters championship at Augusta in 1961, so he has step three—the U.S. Open—ahead of him. Working against him is the fact that no foreign player has won the Open since Ted Ray in 1920.

Gary was among the late first round starters teeing off with PGA champion Jerry Barber at 1:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Player had some criticism of the 6,894-yard, par 36-35-71 Oakmont course earlier in the week, particularly the furrowed sand which you must hit a fairway shot from a downhill lie to a heavily-trapped green that slants away from you.

Rain Closes Course

But he toned down his impressions after Wednesday's drenching rain, which caused officials of the U.S. Golf Association to close the course to keep it in shape for today's start.

There are 150 starters for the 62nd edition of America's prestige tournament, being held for the fourth time at Oakmont, but the pre-tournament talk has narrowed down to just a handful, including Palmer and Player along with Jack Nicklaus, defending champion Gene Littler, and the 1959 Open champion, Billy Casper.

Questions—Answers

Q—Who first described the lost continent of Atlantis?
A—Plato. Some critics believe that it was purely Plato's invention. Some people suggest that the island referred either to the Canary Islands, the Scandinavian Peninsula, or even the North American continent.

Columbiana Auxiliary Host to Legion Women

COLUMBIANA — The American Legion 10th District American Legion Auxiliary will meet here Sunday, with the local Benjamin Firestone Post Auxiliary as host.

Registration will begin at 10 a. m. at the high school. Dinner will be served by the School Band mothers from 11 to 12:30 in the school cafeteria.

The main meeting which will begin promptly at 12:30 features Mrs. William McGill of Minerva as guest speaker.

Mrs. McGill, the department's second vice president, has spent many years of auxiliary service. She has served as department treasurer, chairman of public relations, district president, and president of her own local unit.

The meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Cora Hughes of Steubenville, 10th district president.

There will be a round-table meeting at the Legion Home in the afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Winegard, Mrs. Robert Patchen, and Mrs. Willard

Zellers are general chairmen for the convention, with Mrs. Willard Hetric serving as dinner chairman.

Members from 72 units and 9 counties of the 10th district, which is the second largest in membership, are expected to attend.

On Friday, June 29, closing day of Vacation Bible School, movies of the classes showing their activities and displays will be shown.

About 65 persons attended the meeting Tuesday of the Columbiana Senior Citizens Club, held in the Firestone Park.

Twenty-four women made 111 cancer pads, while the men played cards. A poke lunch at noon was followed by the regular business meeting. The first reading of the new constitution was presented by Ray Fisher and Raymond Snoko.

The program committee then had the John Noble recording played, with Harry Eberhardt's help. Cookies and coffee were served by the social committee.

The next meeting will be held June 26 in pavilion 4, Firestone Park.

Mrs. Bertha Hackett has been moved from her son Roy's home in Paris to the Witmer Nursing Home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kletzly were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mead of Fairfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Snoko and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Orr visited the Rev. Donald Voelm and family in Galion Sunday.

Geneva Arms Conference Begins Recess

GENEVA (AP) — The 17-nation disarmament conference starts a month-long summer recess today with the Soviet Union and the Western powers still deadlocked on all key issues after three months of negotiations.

Western delegates took a gloomy view of the first phase of the conference of Western, Communist and nonaligned nations.

"I feel the negotiations have not been entirely useless," said one diplomat, "but on substantial matters we have achieved absolutely nothing."

The Westerners were hopeful the conference at least had served to explain some of the complexities of world disarmament to the eight nonaligned nations who joined the East-West negotiations here last March.

The eight—Brazil, Burma, Ethiopia, India, Mexico, Nigeria, Sweden and the United Arab Republic—have no nuclear weapons, no large armies and no far-reaching military treaty obligations. Thus Christ will meet tonight at 7:30.

Mrs. Ray Fisher today entertained the ladies of the South Side Club at her home.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Charles Beiling and Sandra Sue Cobourn; also to James A. Rupert and Jacquelyne Sittler.
